

BRENT KNOLL RIDING CLUB

NEWSLETTER DECEMBER 2010

Hi One and All.

At the time of writing this, it's cold, very cold! I thought after the last couple of winters we've had, this one was going to be a bit milder, but it doesn't appear so!

You may be aware of the "Horsewatch" scheme, run by the Police, which runs along similar lines to the Neighbourhood watch scheme. Any one can join – which doesn't cost anything – and by joining you will be kept up-to-date with any relevant issues in the local area, Contact your local police station for further information.

November was a bit quieter for the club, just some lessons going on, which still seem to be well supported. Keep going Lindsay, you're doing a good job with organising them, not always an easy task with instructors and venues changing their minds at short notice!

This month we have our Christmas Show at Stretcholt Equestrian Centre on Thursday 30th. All the classes are being held indoors and, hopefully, there's something for everyone, with both traditional and fun show classes. The committee are hoping the show will have a real festive feel to the day, with all officials being told they MUST wear fancy dress – so that in itself could prove entertaining! We hope to see as many members as possible, so get your tinsel out and come along. We could do with some help, so if you are free, for however long, and not bringing nedly, please contact any of the committee. Thank you. Schedules are out, if you would like one, please contact Sally.

As we are approaching the end of the year, it will be time to re-new your memberships. Despite British Riding Clubs increasing the affiliation charges, we, as a club have decided to keep the costs the same as this year. Please send any membership forms to Bryony.

Finally, all the committee would like to wish you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. If we don't see you on the 30th, see you next year!
